PARADISE.

Singapore is a land of dreams and achievements, with our chefs, TV and radio stars, and singers making their mark on the wide world of culture.

In fact, our bartenders were inspired by these 12 personalities and TV characters to create 12 cocktails sparked by their achievements.

“ Who are they, why are they so iconic, and how have we translated our ideas into drinks? ”

Read on and discover more of Singapore through your taste buds.

DISCLAIMER: THE MATERIAL AND INFORMATION ON THE PERSONALITIES CONTAINED IN THIS MENU IS INTENDED FOR GENERAL INFORMATION ONLY, AND NOT ENDORSED OR CORROBORATED BY THE PERSONALITIES (REAL OR FICTIONAL) WITHIN. NUTMEG & CLOVE MAKES NO REPRESENTATION OR GUARANTEE OF COMPLETENESS AND ACCURACY.

NUTMEG & CLOVE

Founded in 2014, Nutmeg & Clove, the flagship venue of our group Nutmeg Collective, is a gastronomic cocktail bar that marries Singapore's rich history with our cocktails and food program.

Taking great pride in Singapore's history and progression from colonial outpost to modern metropolis, Nutmeg & Clove reinterprets classic and signature cocktails with a Singaporean inflection and lots of fun.

With every sip, our guests will learn or revisit different elements of Singapore, much like in our new Personalities Menu where we pay homage to these 12 Singaporean legends with cocktail creations, in our unique Nutmeg & Clove style.

While we always maintain that we do not open bars to win awards, it has been nice to be recognised internationally over the past 9 years:

WORLD'S 50 BEST BARS

INSPIRED BY
WILLIN LOW

Lawyer turned chef and restaurateur Willin coined the catchy 'mod-Sin' term when he started his now defunct restaurant Wild Rocket in 2005. His Modern Singaporean cuisine includes iconic creations like laksa pesto linguine and chicken rice-inspired salad. His favourite snack? Goreng pisang, a deliciously local take on fried bananas.

- ▶ BACARDI CARTA BLANCA RUM
- ▶ CREME DE CACAO
- ▶ BANANA CARAMEL
- ▶ AMONTILLADO SHERRY

Mod-Sin in a glass. With rum's ability to pair with tropical ingredients, we created a cheeky twist with the dryness of sherry, and sweet nuttiness from caramelised bananas. Spirit-forward but with a smile.

INSPIRED BY
MALCOLM
LEE

Chef-owner of Candlenut, the world's first Michelin-starred Peranakan restaurant, Malcolm hopes to both preserve and innovate Straits Chinese cuisine. Inspired by the flavours of his youth and his grandmother's traditional cooking, he makes kueh (Peranakan desserts) great again.

Are you a kueh-ologist? We looked at what makes a kueh salat so delicious, and translated it into liquid form. Local candlenut gives more creaminess to orgeat, while pandan and coconut are enhanced with a little vanilla. Served in a clay tumbler.

DAMIAN D'SILVA

Don't mess with the heritage master. Cooking from an early age with his grandparents, Damian who is of Eurasian and Peranakan heritage is passionate about rediscovering forgotten dishes and flavours. With this island's history as a trading hub, he often refers to Singapore's cuisine as an "organic fusion" of Chinese, Malay, Indian, Peranakan and Eurasian cuisines.

ORGANIC FUSION

*Smoky, earthy,

- ▶ SMOKEY MONKEY BLENDED MALT WHISKY
- ▶ MANGO GINGER
- ▶ CALAMANSI
- ▶ BURNT DATE
- ▶ TAMARIND

Honey, it's a date! This twist on the Penicillin draws on ingredients with hidden depths, such as ginger with a natural green mango flavour, and tamarind-infused peated whisky that tames the smoke and burnt dates. Gastronomic to the core, just like the chef himself.

MUSIC

These dynamic performers have put Singapore on the world stage. We think they, and our drinks inspired by them, deserve a big encore.

Musician, actor, host, comedian, heartthrob. Oh, also a former national swimmer. Benjamin's hilarious The Calfan Song is an ode to Singapore's economy rice stall, where you point to the dishes - "this one and that one" - that you want to eat. Enjoy a little bit of everything!

CREAM MILK

Clear, cold, and silky. Also deliciously addictive anytime of the day. This clarified milk punch is soft, round and full in the mouth, but with the mild flavours of Indian milk tea. Best enjoyed with bites of peyek kacang, or savoury
Javanese peanut crackers.

KIT CHAN

Singapore's "national treasure", homegrown Mandopop queen Kit has released 40 albums in English, Cantonese and Mandarin. But she is best known for two things: singing the soulful Singapore anthem "Home" and portraying the late Madam Kwa Geok Choo, the wife of Singapore's founding Prime Minister Lee Kuan Yew, in The LKY Musical.

ZOE TAY

She's Queen of Caldecott Hill and Queen of Hearts. Zoe is possibly the most loved star to play leading roles for over 30 years. The glamorous pig farm-to-red carpet actress has been immortalised as a wax figure at the Madame Tussauds Singapore hall of fame.

Get ready for drama! The name references Zoe's famous 40-episode series Golden Pillow, which revolves around a mysterious black stone pillow. We used black gold aka black garlic and coffee for earthiness and a golden touch of saffron to this strong, stirred drink.

NUTMEG & CLOVE

Claim to fame: trademark yellow boots, curly afro hair, large facial mole. Portrayed by Gurmit Singh, Phua Chu Kang the contractor came to life with catchphrases such as “don’t pray pray (play play)”, “use your blain (brain), and “abuden” which became nationally famous. This was Singapore’s longest-running sitcom which ran from 1997 to 2007.
